THE BEE is a very small bird, but it sings hard so does the little Japs fight hard.

Japs still victo- rous.

The Japs are still hedging in on Port Arthur yet their loss is heavy--But the evidence of their fighting is that they believe their cause is a sacred one.

More bodies re- covered

OBITUARY.

Mt. Grove Mo.

June 20, 1904.

Death has again visited us and taken from our midst the beloved wife of Dr. Tiffin. She departed this life June 5, 1904.
She was a kind and affectionate woman and was loved by all who knew her. She will be greatly missed, but we are sure our loss will be heaven's gain, the deceased was 44 years old.
She leaves her Husband, one Daughter, an only child. Mrs.
Jessie Hughes, and one Brother besides a large circle of friends to mourn her Death she has gone to the unseen world gone to her reward in Heaven. Gone to be with her Savior forever, to the bereaved we say by confiding in Jesus you can meet her where we'll never say Good-Bye.

We have lost our Darling mother, She has bid us all adieu;
She has gone to live in Heaven,
And her person is last to view; Oh, that Darling how we loved her, Oh, how hard to give her up;
But an angel came down for her,
And removed her from our flock, Dearest Mother thou hast left us, And our loss we deeply feel,
But 'tis God that has bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal; Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled;
When in heaven with Joy to greet thee, Where no Fare well tear is shed.
Through all pains at times she'd smile,
A smile of Heavenly birth;
And when the angels called her home, She smiled Fare-well to earth; Heaven retaineth now our treasure, Earth the lonely casket keeps;
And the Sunbeams love to linger, Where our sainted mother sleeps.
A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home, Which never can be filled; God in his Wisdom has recalled, The boon his love had given;
And tho the body slumbers here,
The soul is safe in Heaven.
Fare-well Dear Mother, Sweet thy rest, Weary with years and worn with pain; Fare-well, till in some happy place, We shall behold thy face again;

CHILDREN'S COLUMN.

Hello Mr. Editor.

And all of the letter writers.
Summer has come and we all should be glad. I like to live in the country where the air is fresh and cool. We have good meetings and Sunday School here. I like to go to Sunday School and meeting very good. I am glad that we have got a childrens column in the CRESSET. We have had some rainy weather for a few days. Well I will close with best wishes to all.
Ida Shelley.

EDUCATION.

I will try to write on education again. There are lots of people without an education. I believe the time will come when almost everybody will have an education.
Why not try while we are little boys and girls to get a good education. If we want to get a good education why don't we get it honest we can go to country schools free.
We ought to have a good education.

There are lots of farmers that hasn't got an education when they ship anything as cows, horses and hogs they wouldn't know if anybody cheated them or not. If any young man wanted to be a president and didn't have an education he couldn't hold an office. There are lots of little boys say I am not going to school I don't like the teacher they scold me that is not the way to do.

—Albert Horton.

Can a child do any good.

One child I believe can, and will teach another child. Just since I have been a compositor in the CRESSET OFFICE, have I noticed this so plain I am just 12 years old I have been in the CRESSET OFFICE for two years--There is four of us little girls working in the OFFICE and I have noticed what ever one does we all want to learn to do--And what ever one of us has, the others would like to have the same--So this teach me that one child can teach another child, let it be good or bad--So since I have learned this, I am so proud that I am under a good teacher, the Editor of the CRES-SET--For he tries to teach us every day something good, and oftimes when we would like to do something that we think would not be much harm, the Ed. will say, 'New little girls you had better not do that, but do something else that will teach your playmates good things--So little girls and boys let us be good every day and teach other girls and boys to be good.

—Leona Simons.

Fowler, Mo.

To the Editor:

I will take my pencil in my hand, and write a letter for the childrens column.
There was not many letters for the children's column last week, I hope there will be lots of letters this week for I like to read the letters that the boys and girls write. I go to S. S. at JAH-Ville almost every Sunday.
I like to go to S. S.

I will tell you about going a hickorynut hunting. One of my school mates and I went a hick-orynut hunting last fall and stayed all day. We got about a half a bushel apiece that day and had a good time. Last fall my two brothers and I got about 4 bushel all together. I hope there will be lots of hickorynuts and walnuts, so my school mates and I can go and have a good time.
There will be lots of black-berries and huckle-berries this year and I hope all of my play-mates will get lots of berries and have a good time too. I never get tired of writing letters for the children's column. The children's column is not for only this neighborhood it is for all the children that will write. How many of the children like to read good stories.
I like to read stories about wild adventures. I like history pretty well. I will close for this time wishing the Correspondents and Editor good success and have a good time.

Corn and potatoes are looking fine at present.

The rust has struck wheat very bad in this sec.

Mr. Jim Linthicum has spent the last few days with Mr McGown how about it L.

Robert and Willie McGowen paid Mr. Linthicum a visit on last Sunday, how about it Emmie.

We understand that Charley Woods has been on the sick list for the past week but we see that he is able to be on foot again, how about it Cora.

Well I guess I will ring off for this time as this is my first if this escapes the waste basket I'll com-again.
